There are some people who love to mix and match while others like to keep everything with solid colors. Whatever you decide just know that your choices will be the best for you and your project. Others may not like it, but you will love it because it's you.

Umbrellas will be a great addition to your splash pad. They can be any height that you'd like with the variations of colors, so really they can be any type of umbrella that you desire.
